

Abstract.

An implementation of combinatorial GMDH programmed in Java called jGMDH will be presented: the algorithm package, the GUI for exploring network structures and the Weka-conform package, at their current states of development. To visualize how the algorithm organizes network structures, a small Java demonstration will be run, followed by usage examples of jGMDH that show how it can be invoked from both custom-made Java code and Weka GUI as a Weka classifier.